CERTIFICATE REGARDING LIBRARY BOOKS

This is to certify that the books available in the school library comprise motivational literature, subject-related books, reference materials, encyclopaedias, and other age-appropriate educational resources intended to support and enrich the academic and overall development of the students.

The school management has reviewed the contents of the books available in the library and confirms that there is no objectionable, inappropriate, or derogatory content that may hurt the sentiments, dignity, or feelings of any individual or group on the basis of class, community, gender, religion, or any other social consideration.

The Management hereby takes full responsibility for the books and reading materials maintained in the school library and affirms that the collection is in accordance with the educational objectives and values of the school and the applicable guidelines of the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE).
